FATHER EDGAR'S CORNER

Dear Parish Family,

Today is the 100th Anniversary of the end of the first World War. The 11th hour, of the 11th day, of the 11th month. On this Veterans Day we thank those brave men and women who have been willing to live out that most selfless call of the Gospel: "There is no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends." May God protect those on active duty and bring peace to those who still suffer in mind and body today from the effects of war. In today's Catechism Corner is an excerpt from a 1914 Encyclical of Pope Benedict XV about the need for peace (written at the beginning of WWI). I invite you to pray with those scripture passages this week.

As a small token of our gratitude, Veterans will eat free today at the Taco Sale which runs from 11-4 in conjunction with our PTO's one-stop-shop from 9 to 2. Support our school & get some Christmas shopping done!

Our parish feast day this year falls on a Saturday. We will have an 8:15 Mass along with the usual Saturday Vigil Mass at 4:30 p.m. on November 17th - the Solemnity of St. Elizabeth of Hungary. We will use the special prayers and readings for St. Elizabeth at both Masses. Even though you will not hear the Sunday readings at 4:30 Mass on Saturday the 17th, the 4:30 Mass still fulfills your Sunday obligation. The 8:15 a.m. Mass on Saturday morning will have incense.

The busy season of the year is upon us - I think I have every evening scheduled with something into December! Let us together be intentional in re-doubling our efforts to pray for one another, especially when we are busy! God bless you all!

~ Father Edgar

WILL & TRUST SEMINAR - Make your reservations by 5 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 13th with the parish office (877-3300) for this seminar on Thursday, Nov. 15th from 6:30-8 p.m. in the Harmony Room with Mr. Roth, a local attorney. This event is free, but space is limited, so please make your reservation. Refreshments will be served. Any questions you have about wills / trusts / bequests can be answered, including how to remember our parish.

CATECHISM CORNER

This section is meant to serve as a "Did You Know" or "Frequently Asked Questions" blurb about the faith.

Today here is an excerpt from an encyclical at the time of World War I - urging peace. Pope Benedict XV published this letter to the whole world (AD BEATISSIMI APOSTOLORUM) on All Saints Day, Nov. 1st, 1914.

6. Our Lord Jesus Christ came down from Heaven for the very purpose of restoring among men the Kingdom of Peace, which the envy of the devil had destroyed, and it was His will that it should rest on no other foundation than that of brotherly love. These are His own oft-repeated words: "A new commandment I give unto you: That you love one another (John xiv. 34); "This is my commandment that you love one another" (John xv. 12); "These things I command you, that you love one another" (John xv. 17); as though His one office and purpose was to bring men to mutual love. He used every kind of argument to bring about that effect. He bids us all look up to Heaven: "For one is your Father who is in Heaven" (Matt. xxiii 9); He teaches all men, without distinction of nationality or of language, or of ideas, to pray in the words: "Our Father, who are in Heaven" (Matt. vi. 9); nay, more, He tells us that our Heavenly Father in distributing the blessings of nature makes no distinction of our deserts: "Who makes His sun to rise upon the good and bad, and rains upon the just and the unjust" (Matt. v. 45). He bids us be brothers one to another, and calls us His brethren: "All you are brethren" (Matt. xxiii. 8); "that He might be the first-born among many brethren" (Rom. vii. 29). In order the more to stimulate us to brotherly love, even towards those whom our natural pride despises, it is His will that we should recognize the dignity of His own very self in the meanest of men: "As long as you did it to one of these My least brethren, you did it to Me" (Matt. xxv. 40). At the close of His life did He not most earnestly beg of His Father, that as many as should believe in Him should all be one in the bond of charity? "As thou, Father, in Me, and I in Thee" (John xvii. 21). And finally, as He was hanging from the cross, He poured out His blood over us all, whence being as it were compacted and fitly joined together in one body, we should love one another, with a love like that which one member bears to another in the same body.

7. Far different from this is the behavior of men today. Never perhaps was there more talking about the brotherhood of men than there is today; in fact, men do not hesitate to proclaim that striving after brotherhood is one of the greatest gifts of modern civilization, ignoring the teaching of the Gospel, and setting aside the work of Christ and of His Church. But in reality never was there less brotherly activity among men than at the present moment. Race hatred has reached its climax; peoples are more divided by jealousies than by frontiers; within one and the same nation, within the same city there rages the burning envy of class against class; and among individuals it is self-love which is the supreme law over-ruling everything.

8. You see, Venerable Brethren, how necessary it is to strive in every possible way that the charity of Jesus Christ should once more rule supreme among men. That will ever be our own aim; that will be the keynote of Our Pontificate. And We exhort you to make that also the end of your endeavors. Let us never cease from reechoing in the ears of men and setting forth in our acts, that saying of St. John: "Let us love one another" (I John iii. 23). Noble, indeed, and praiseworthy are the manifold philanthropic institutions of our day; but it is when they contribute to stimulate true love of God and of our neighbors in the hearts of men, that they are found to confer a lasting advantage; if they do not do so, they are of no real value, for "he that loves not, abides in death." (I John iii. 14).

WHAT IS EUCHARISTIC ADORATION?

Thursdays 9:00 a.m. – 9:00 p.m.

First Friday/Saturday

9:00 am Friday through 8:00 am Saturday

What do you want me to do for you?

Jesus asked the blind man, Bartimaeus, “What do you want me to do for you?” The blind man chooses sight and Jesus’ reply is “Your faith has made you well.” What is your deepest desire right now? How deep is your faith? Encounter Jesus in the silence of Eucharistic Adoration. Know that He will fulfill your deepest needs if asked in deep faith.

With Mary, His Mother and ours, let us Adore Him with Contrition and Thanksgiving and present Him with our deepest desires with Faith. He will come to us in the silence.

Eucharistic Adoration is a means at our disposal that we can use to grow in holiness and store up treasure for eternity.

7-8 p.m. Berta Milianis

12-1 a.m. John Waller

11-12 p.m. Michael Mecava

3-4 a.m. Turner Brooks

Each of the above hours could use a committed prayer partner. Only one person has committed to these hours. It would be good to have at least two to worship each hour. Can you give just one hour once a month to join these men and women praying before the Blessed Sacrament? Consider forming a habit of prayerful adoration of Eucharistic Lord on the first Friday of each month. You will reap more than you sow. Thanks to Peggy Law, Mary Carich and Ruth Carr who committed to partner with Rosemary Tomlovic, Millie Noeth and Andy Yurko on First Friday.

The scheduled adorers are guardians of the exposed Blessed Sacrament and their presence is important and necessary. Please seriously consider making a firm commitment to one of the 12 hours ONCE A WEEK on THURSDAY or to one of the twenty four hours ONCE A MONTH on FIRST FRIDAY/SATURDAY. Come visit our God in the Holy Eucharist.

Thanks to all who have committed to praying before the Blessed Sacrament for one hour each Thursday and First Friday. The list of those who have made a commitment is posted on the bulletin board by the sacristy. Call Norma @ 618-931-1537 when you are ready to make this sacrifice.
